Guidelines

- This year's Kappy Family Anne Frank Art & Writing Competition will accept entries from Michigan students in grades 7 and 8.
- Students may submit work that falls into the following categories: poetry, prose, two-dimensional art, three-dimensional art. Categories will be judged separately.
- Each student may submit one entry for consideration. All qualifying work will be reviewed by a panel of judges.

Rules

- All work should be original and done without the help of teachers or parents, outside of basic editing and construction assistance. Only original work will be considered.
 - All books, websites, films, photographs, and artwork referenced or used in your entry must be cited.
- Entries must respond to the 2020 theme, inspiration, and prompt.
- Entries must have a title.
- Entries must be accompanied by a Statement of Purpose.
- Each entry must be accompanied by a completed entry form.
- Students must enter with a sponsoring teacher.
 - Please follow your teacher's instruction for how to submit your entry for a class assignment or extra credit. Projects submitted outside of a class must still have a teacher sponsor included on your registration form.
- All entries will become property of the Holocaust Memorial Center.
- Entries that do not meet these guidelines and rules will not be considered.

Writing

- Written entries may not exceed 1000 words.
- Writing may ONLY be submitted electronically as an email attachment sent to competition@holocaustcenter.org. The subject of the email should be the student's name.
- Writing will ONLY be accepted as .doc or .docx files
- All written entries must be received by April 3, 2020.
