

Guidelines

- This year's Elie Wiesel Night Art & Writing Competition will accept entries from Michigan students in grades 9-12.
- Students may submit work that falls into one of the following categories: two-dimensional art, three-dimensional art, poetry, or prose.
- Each student may submit one entry for consideration. All qualifying work will be reviewed by a panel of judges.

Rules

- All work should be original and done without the help of teachers or parents, outside of basic editing and construction assistance.
- Only original work will be considered.
 - All books, websites, films, photographs, and artwork referenced or used in your entry must be cited.
- Entries must respond to the 2022 Theme and Prompts.
- Entries must have a title.
- Entries must be accompanied by a Statement of Purpose.
- Entries must be accompanied by a completed entry form.
- Students must enter with a sponsoring teacher.
 - Please follow your teacher's instructions for how to submit your entry for a class assignment or extra credit. Entries submitted outside of class must still have a sponsoring teacher included on your registration form.
- All entries will become property of The Zekelman Holocaust Center.
- Entries that do not meet these guidelines and rules will not be considered.
